

PVHS Music Department

Course Offerings

Ms. Shellie Parkinson

parkinson@pvpusd.net

Orchestra, Jazz Band, Marching Band, Concert Band, Colorguard, Drumline and Music Theory AP

Orchestra

Meets Zero Period

Orchestra and Advanced Orchestra Levels available

Learn to play pieces from various genres- Baroque, Classical, Romantic, etc.

Play 2 major concerts a year and compete at an Orchestra Festival in the Spring.

Jazz Band

Currently meets 4th Period

For winds, guitars, drummers, pianists and bass players.

Perform Big Band Jazz Standards in concert twice a year (December and May)

Learn jazz theory and how to improvise on your instrument

Jam out of fake books with a Jazz Combo
Travel to New Orleans for the Jazz Festival in 2023!

Marching Band/Concert Band

Meets 2nd Period

No experience necessary.

Perform at all Fall Football games and the Peninsula Holiday Parade.

Includes Drumline and Colorguard as well.

In the spring, Concert Band competes at SCSBOA Festival and performs a spring concert.

Leadership opportunities.

Music Theory AP

Currently meets 5th period

Learn how to analyze and compose music.

Listen to and identify chords and intervals.

Practice Sight-singing and Melodic Dictation.

Work towards passing the College Board Music Theory Exam

Additional Opportunities:

Tri-M Music Honor Society

Honors Recital

Pit Orchestra for Spring Musical